*of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons
of North Carolina*

August 25, 2006

Brother Officers,

The major aspect of fraternal education undertaken by the North Carolina Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Education last year centered on the Officers' Handbook compiled by WB Dudley Sheppard (1952-2006) for use in his home Lodge, Gate City 694 in Greensboro. He was a member of the first class of Wilkerson College and presented these booklets as the first graduate to present an educational program to Wilkerson College 760. This edition is dedicated to his memory.

After much careful review and discussion, the committee felt that this was a project worth pursuing at the state level. The revised and edited version was approved by the Board of General Purposes meeting at the 2005 Annual Communication.

This booklet has been mailed to each lodge from our School of Graphic Arts in Oxford and is printed two-sided on drilled paper. It is suggested that a copy be made for each officer and inserted into a binder. The Officers' Handbook contains checklists, calendars, officer information, Code regulations, and other items that can assist each officer to better perform his duties.

Another copy of the Officers' Handbook will be included on the Proceedings CD, which is itself growing into a mini-library, when it is mailed to lodges later this year along with "Documents for the Lodges 2006," the 2005 proceedings and other materials.

A third copy will be posted on The North Carolina Grand Lodge website. This can be downloaded and printed in single or multiple copies, in whole or in part.

Although the process of printing and distribution has been completed, it is understood that these handbooks will be continually reviewed, revised, and updated to continue to serve as an instructional tool for officers and the Craft in general. Additional topics which could be covered in addenda include historical or educational background of Masonry, ritual, mentoring/ sponsorship, coaching, investigation committees/orientation to the Craft, and lecturing. Much of this information can derive from the current Lodge System of Masonic Education and Program for Progress. Appropriate sections can be chosen as needed from these current works, which are currently being revised, and their future editions as supplements to the handbooks, thus introducing a new generation to the material.

Sincerely and Fraternally,

Rick Smith

 Gate City Lodge No. 694
 Revision Date: May 27, 2005

Brethren,

This book has been made available to assist you in your duties as an officer in your lodge.

It is not intended to be a book of laws to govern your actions, but a guide that you may use over the years to assist you during your journey through “the line.”

It will be helpful to future incoming officers, if during your journey, you include ideas, suggestions, or any bit of information that will help him during his term in office.

If all who fill these offices offer bits of information learned during their terms, it will ultimately help all of the officers of your lodge become more effective leaders and the lodge much stronger. Information that could benefit an upcoming brother could be:

- ☛ Contact persons for services or products
- ☛ Where to locate items for lodge activities or projects
- ☛ Procedures that make certain tasks easier
- ☛ Mistakes you made and the results from those mistakes
- ☛ Any bit of information that will benefit future officers in the performance of their duties and a successful term in office.

Any addition to the information in this book will indicate your successful term in office and your desire to see your upcoming brothers enjoy a more successful term in office.

Use this book as it is intended. Don’t let it lay around to gather dust. This book could be a very worthwhile tool to future officers.

Preface

In the year of the Great Architect 2003, it was the vision of your Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Education to provide every officer in the lodge a guide to their officer specific duties for the ensuing year.

This handbook has been created to assist you with those officer specific duties. Some of the duties contained within these pages, with the exception of “The Code Duties,” are of a generic nature.

As you progress through the line of officers in your lodge, your duties and responsibilities will change. Ultimately, the further you advance, the more you will have. As your duties and responsibilities increase, so does the time it takes to perform them.

Different lodges may vary with officer specific duties. In travelling, you may very well notice differences in officer’s duties from one lodge to another.

These duties are intended to prepare you for the next step until you have, with the blessing of your lodge brothers, been elected as master of your lodge.

Your attention to detail and the performance of your duties will reflect upon you as an officer, as well as your lodge. It is very important that you take pride in the performance of your duties and perform them to the best of your ability.

Duties of a Freemason

By The Code

“The Code” refers to: The Code, Constitution and Regulations of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina”

Reg. 52-3 The duties of a Freemason are as follows:

1. To obey the moral law,
  2. To obey the laws and edicts of the Grand Lodge,
  3. To be neither an atheist or skeptic,
  4. To be a good man and true,
  5. To live in peace and to practice charity,
  6. To be a member of a regular Lodge,
  7. To perform faithfully the duties as such member, or as an officer,
  8. To pay his dues thereto promptly,
  9. To obey the civil law,
  10. To notify the secretary of his lodge immediately of any change in his mailing address,
  11. To pay due respect and obedience to the various Grand Lodge officers and lodge officers according to their respective rank and station,
  12. To obey the by-laws of his lodge, and to attend its communications,
  13. To observe those lessons and duties inculcated in the several lectures and charges of the three Symbolic degrees of Freemasonry, and
  14. To keep and perform the several obligations of those degrees. [77-16].

The Tyler's Charge

Brother,

You have been appointed by the master of your lodge as tyler for the ensuing year. It is important that you understand the duties and responsibilities of the office you now occupy.

Before being installed as tyler, you and all of the officers-elect made the following pledge:

I promise on the honor of a master mason that I will, to the best of my ability, conform to and abide by the ancient landmarks, regulations, and usages of Masonry, the Constitution and laws of the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina and the laws of this lodge, and that I will faithfully perform the duties of the office to which I have been selected.

Upon being installed into the office you now occupy, the installing officer read the following charge to you:

Brother, you have been appointed tyler of this lodge. It is your duty to guard the entrance to the lodge, to report all brethren for admission to the junior deacon, to announce the name of each visiting brother, together with the name, number and location of his lodge, to see that each brother who enters is duly qualified and properly clothed, to keep a register of visiting brethren, to perform such other duties as may be required by laws and customs of the craft or by order of the master.

The marshal will now invest you with the implement of your office.

As the sword is placed in the hands of the tyler to enable him effectually to guard against the approach of cowans and eavesdroppers, and suffer none to pass or repass, but such as are duly qualified. So it should morally serve as a constant admonition to us; to set a guard at the entrance of our thoughts, to place a watch at the door of our lips, to post a sentinel at the avenues of our actions, thereby excluding every unqualified and unworthy thought, word, and deed, and preserving consciences void of offense toward God and man. Your early and punctual attendance will afford the best proof of your zeal for the institution.

Duties of the Tyler

As described by

The Code, Constitution and Regulations of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina

Reg. 59-16 Tyler. The duties of the Tyler shall be as follows:

1. To guard the entrance of the lodge, to report all brethren to the junior deacon for admission, to announce the name of each visiting brother and the name, number, and location of his lodge; to see that each brother who enters is duly qualified, vouched for, and properly clothed; to be subject to the direct orders of the master, and to keep a register of visiting brethren. [51-3; 62-1; 62-1.7].

2. To have charge, subject to the direct order of the master, of the furniture, jewels, and other property of the lodge.
  3. To have special care to insure cleanliness in the hall and anterooms.
  4. To serve notices, summonses, citations, or other documents issued under authority of the master and the lodge when ordered unless otherwise provided. [51-3; 51-3.2; 83-3].

The Junior Steward's Charge

Brother,

You have been appointed by the master of your lodge as junior steward for the ensuing year.

It is important that you understand the duties and responsibilities of the office you now occupy.

By accepting this appointment, you have indicated your desire to begin your journey through the line of officers, also known as “the chairs.” At this point, you have demonstrated the commitment needed to see this journey to its ultimate end, the East.

It is important for you to understand this commitment and what it means. If you continue through the chairs, you will need to participate, as much as possible, in most of the lodge activities. Your participation will serve several purposes. It will demonstrate your desire to help make your lodge as successful as possible. Your participation will serve as a learning experience. It will help prepare you for future offices. Above all, if you do not participate, you will miss out on the friendship, camaraderie, and self-satisfaction of being a part of a very successful activity.

In the not so distant future, you may be asked to handle a project or perform a task that will require the help of your fellow officers or brothers. If you have demonstrated in the past that you are willing to be there when they need you, you will find them there when you need them.

Think of your journey through the chairs not as a task or job, but as a learning experience that will serve you in the lodge as well in life.

Before being installed as junior steward, you and the officers-elect made the following pledge:

I promise on the honor of a master mason that I will, to the best of my ability, conform to and abide by the ancient landmarks, regulations, and usages of Masonry, the Constitution and laws of the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina and the laws of this lodge, and that I will faithfully perform those duties of the office to which I have been selected.

Upon being installed into the office you now occupy, the installing officer read to you and the senior steward the following charge:

Brothers, you have been appointed or elected stewards of this lodge. It is your duty to provide for the comfort of the brethren, to assist the deacons and other officers in performing their duties, to perform such other duties as may be required by the usage and custom of the craft, or as may be required by the ritual, by the master, or by the junior warden. Your regular and early attendance will afford the best proof of your zeal and attachment to the lodge.

Duties of the Junior Steward

As described by

The Code, Constitution and Regulations of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina

Reg. 59-15 Stewards. The duties of the stewards shall be as follows:

1. They shall perform such duties agreeable to the usage of the craft and pertaining to their offices as may be required by the ritual, the junior warden, or the master.
  2. They shall provide for the comfort of the brethren.

The Senior Steward's Charge

Brother,

You have been appointed by the master of your lodge as senior steward for the ensuing year.

It is important that you understand the duties and responsibilities of the office you now occupy.

Your acceptance of this appointment, further emphasizes your commitment to continue through the chairs.

As junior steward during the previous year, you assisted the senior steward as he provided comfort and refreshment for your brethren. It now becomes your responsibility to do so.

During the ensuing year, you will learn to plan. This is an integral part of your future associated with the chairs in your lodge. Your performance during your tenure as senior steward will reflect on your future performance and commitment to the lodge and your brethren.

Learn well the lessons of planning. They will serve you throughout the rest of your journey through the chairs.

Before being installed as Senior Steward, you and all of the officers-elect made the following pledge:

I promise on the honor of a master mason that I will, to the best of my ability, conform to and abide by the ancient landmarks, regulations, and usages of Masonry, the Constitution and laws of the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina and the laws of this lodge, and that I will faithfully perform the duties of the office to which I have been selected.

Upon being installed into the office you now occupy, the installing officer read to you and the junior steward the following charge:

Brother, you have been appointed or elected stewards of this lodge. It is your duty to provide for the comfort of the brethren, to assist the deacons and other officers in performing their duties, to perform such other duties as may be required by the usage and custom of the craft, or as may be required by the ritual, by the master, or by the junior warden. Your regular and early attendance will afford the best proof of your zeal and attachment to the lodge.

Duties of the Senior Steward

As described by

The Code, Constitution and Regulations of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina

Reg. 59-15 Stewards. The duties of the stewards shall be as follows:

1. They shall perform such duties agreeable to the usage of the craft and pertaining to their offices as may be required by the ritual, the junior warden, or the master.
  2. They shall provide for the comfort of the brethren.

The Junior Deacon's Charge

Brother,

You have been appointed by the master of your lodge to the office of junior deacon for the ensuing year.

This office carries much responsibility. You are basically, the “keeper of the gate.” It is your responsibility to assist the tyler, before the lodge is purged, to vouch for visiting brethren. If you cannot, it is your responsibility to advise the master and/or wardens so that proper examination of the visitor may be initialized. It is your duty to guard the lodge entrance from within the lodge. No one should enter or leave the lodge without the master’s permission or order. It is your duty to assist the senior deacon in purging the lodge according to the rules and regulations in The Code. You are responsible for seeing that all that enter the lodge are properly clothed.

Your office is of such importance that when you are performing other various duties in the lodge, the master must appoint another master mason to fill your chair during the performance of those duties. You are, in essence, “the guard within.” The Grand Lodge education booklet Program for Progress notes that “You are already a leader.”

In the performance of your duties in previous chairs, you have demonstrated leadership qualities to varying degrees. Take the opportunity this year to hone and polish those leadership skills. Your participation and attendance at the lodge social events, projects, and fund raisers are good tools for sharpening your leadership skills. The lessons they teach and the experience you gain will benefit you throughout your journey through the chairs and in life itself.

Before being installed as junior deacon, you and all of the officers-elect, made the following pledge:

I promise on the honor of a master mason that I will, to the best of my ability, conform to and abide by the ancient landmarks, regulations, and usages of Masonry, the Constitution and laws of the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina and the laws of this lodge, and that I will faithfully perform the duties of the office to which I have been selected.

Upon being installed into the office you now occupy, the installing officer read the following charge to you:

Brother, you have been appointed or elected junior deacon of this lodge. It is your duty to act as messenger of the senior warden in the active duties of the lodge, to have special care to see that the lodge is properly tyled. If you cannot personally vouch for each person in the lodge room as a master mason at the time the lodge is being purged, you shall proceed forthwith in the proper manner to satisfy yourself to that effect. The failure to perform this important duty shall be a serious offense. It is also your duty to announce the name of each visiting brother, the name, number, and location of his lodge, to be certain that he is duly vouched for and that he is properly clothed before he is admitted to the lodge. You are to perform such other duties as the customs of the craft may require, or the master may order. The square and compasses as the badge of your office, I now entrust to your care. I do not doubt your vigilance and attention.

Duties of the Junior Deacon

As described by

The Code, Constitution and Regulations of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina

Reg. 59-14 Junior Deacon. The duties of junior deacon shall be as follows.

1. He shall act as messenger of the senior warden in the active duties of the lodge.
  2. He shall have special care that the lodge is secure. [59-2.49].
  3. If the junior deacon cannot personally vouch for each person in the lodge room as a master mason at the time the lodge is being purged, he shall proceed forthwith in the proper manner to satisfy himself to that effect. Failure to perform this important duty fully and properly shall be a serious Masonic offense. [50-4; Chapter 51].
  4. He shall perform such other duties as the usage and customs of the craft may require or the master may order.

The Senior Deacon's Charge

Brother,

You have been appointed, by the master of your lodge, as the senior deacon for the ensuing year.

This is a very important office. This year, you need to pay more attention to the elected positions in the lodge. Learn all you can from them. You will, by the grace of the brethren, be elected junior warden next year. Your performance in this position will play an important role toward that election.

Your attendance and participation in most, if not all, of the lodge functions is needed. This is where you will gain the knowledge and experience required performing the duties of the junior warden. If you do not participate, you will be unable to function properly in your office and the lodge and our charities will suffer the consequences.

The junior warden will assign more responsibilities and tasks to you this year. These tasks and responsibilities are not assigned to you just so you will work, but to help inform you as to what is expected of you next year. Your cooperation will be appreciated and the effort you expend will ultimately help gain for you some of the knowledge and experience you will need one day as master of the lodge.

Before being installed as an officer in your lodge, you and all of the other officers-elect took the following pledge:

I promise on the honor of a master mason that I will, to the best of my ability, conform to and abide by the ancient landmarks, regulations, and usages of Masonry, the Constitution and laws of the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina and the laws of this lodge, and that I will faithfully perform the duties of the office to which I have been selected.

Upon being installed in the office you now occupy, the installing officer read the following charge to you:

Brother, you have been appointed or elected senior deacon of this lodge. You are to act as messenger of the master in the active duties of the lodge, to give fraternal attention to visiting brethren, to receive and conduct candidates into the different degrees of Masonry. In the immediate practice of our rites and ceremonies, to you, with such assistance as you may deem necessary, may be entrusted the examination of visitors. You are to perform such duties as the customs of the craft may require, or the master may order. The square and compasses, as badges of your office, I entrust to your care, not doubting your zeal and attention.

Duties of the Senior Deacon

As described by

The Code, Constitution and Regulations of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina

Reg. 59-13 Senior Deacon. The duties of senior deacon shall be as follows:

1. He shall act as messenger of the master in the active duties of the lodge.
  2. He shall give fraternal attention to visiting brethren.
  3. He shall receive and conduct candidates in the three degrees of Masonry.
  4. He shall perform such other duties as the usage and customs of the craft may require or the master may order.

The Junior Warden's Charge

Brother,

The brethren of your lodge have elected you to the office of junior warden for the ensuing year.

Your brothers have exhibited a high degree of trust, respect, and confidence in you and your abilities by electing you to this office. You have demonstrated, while serving in the previous chairs, your commitment, ability, and a strong desire to serve your lodge and Masonry. In doing so, you have earned that trust, respect, and confidence.

It is important that you understand the duties and responsibilities of the office to which you have been elected.

By accepting your election to this office, you are demonstrating your trust, respect, and confidence in your brother masons.

This station is, by far, the most difficult and the most demanding yet, with the duties and responsibilities it carries. Your commitment and the satisfactory performance of those duties and responsibilities serves to further prepare you for the next step in attaining your ultimate goal, being eventually elected to sit in the East.

Before being installed as junior warden, you and all of the officers-elect, made the following pledge:

I promise on the honor of a master mason that I will, to the best of my ability, conform to and abide by the ancient landmarks, regulations, and usages of Masonry, the Constitution and laws of the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina and the laws of this lodge, and that I will faithfully perform the duties of the office to which I have been selected.

Upon being installed into the office you now occupy, the Installing Officer read the following charge to you:

Brother, you have been elected junior warden of this lodge and invested with the badge of your office. The plumb admonishes us to walk uprightly in our several stations, to hold the scales of justice in equal poise, to observe the just medium between intemperance and pleasure, and to make our passions and prejudices coincide with the line of our duty.

To you is committed the superintendence of the craft during the hours of refreshment. It is therefore indispensably necessary that you should not only be temperate and discreet in the indulgence of your inclinations, but carefully observe that none of the craft be suffered to convert the purposes of refreshment into intemperance and excess.

Your regular and punctual attendance is particularly requested. I have no doubt that you will faithfully execute the duty which you owe to your present election.

— Look well to the South!

Duties of the Junior Warden

As described by

The Code, Constitution and Regulations of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina

Reg. 59-10 Junior Warden: The duties of the junior warden shall be as follows:

1. He shall superintend the craft during the hours of refreshment.
  2. He shall take cognizance of all complaints of any un-Masonic conduct and bring the same before the lodge, or to prefer charges therefor, provided that his failure to act shall not bar any brother from bringing a complaint directly before the lodge or preferring charges as provided by law.
  3. He shall represent the lodge personally or by regularly appointed proxy in conjunction with the master and senior warden at all communications of the Grand Lodge. [3-1.3; 3-3; 3-4].
  4. He shall succeed to and exercise all the powers of the master in the absence of the two officers above him. So far as practicable the provisions of Regulation 59-9 shall apply when the junior warden acts as master.

The Senior Warden's Charge

Brother,

Due to your hard work, dedication, and perseverance, the brethren of your lodge have elected you as senior warden.

You have just completed your busiest year since you started in the line six years ago. It has been a long and tedious journey. It is now time for you to reflect upon what you have learned during this journey and begin serious planning of your year as master. It will be here before you know it. Don't think you can fall asleep in the "rocking chair" now that your ultimate goal is in sight. Take advantage of this time to share your past experiences with the junior officers. Work with the master toward the successful completion of his year and learn from his successes and mistakes. Use this time wisely to prepare yourself in a manner that will help make your year as master a successful one.

It is important that you understand the duties and responsibilities of the office to which you have been elected.

The senior warden's station is the most important leg of your journey. This year you begin putting your plans for next year into motion. Use the experience of the master and the past masters to assist you. The past masters are an extremely valuable asset.

By accepting your election to this office, you are demonstrating your trust, respect, and confidence in your brother masons.

Before being installed as senior warden, you and all of the officers-elect, made the following pledge:

I promise on the honor of a master mason that I will, to the best of my ability, conform to and abide by the ancient landmarks, regulations, and usages of Masonry, the Constitution and laws of the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina and the laws of this lodge, and that I will faithfully perform the duties of the office to which I have been selected.

Upon being installed into the office you now occupy, the installing officer read the following charge to you:

Brother, you have been elected senior warden of this lodge and invested with the ensign of your office. The level demonstrates that we are descended from the same stock, partake of the same nature, and share the same hope. Though distinctions among men are necessary to preserve subordination; yet no eminence of station should make us forget that we are brethren. He who is placed on the lowest spoke of fortune's wheel may be entitled to our regard; because a time will come, and the wisest knows not how soon, when all the distinctions, but that of goodness, shall cease; and death, the grand leveler of human greatness, shall reduce us to the same state.

Your regular attendance at our stated communications is necessary. In the absence of the master you are to govern his lodge; in his presence, you are to assist him in the government of it. I firmly rely on your knowledge of Masonry and attachment to the lodge for the faithful discharge of the duties of this important trust.

— Look well to the West!

Duties of the Senior Warden

As described by

The Code, Constitution and Regulations of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina

Reg. 59-9 Senior Warden. The duties of the senior warden shall be as follows:

1. He shall take charge of the craft during the hours of labor in the absence of the master.
  2. He shall represent the lodge in conjunction with the master and junior warden at all communications of the Grand Lodge or to appoint his proxy therefor. [3-1.3; 3-3; 3-4].
  3. He shall succeed to and exercise all the powers of the master in the event of his absence. [45-5].
  4. The master shall be considered absent, so as to justify a warden or a past master in acting as master, when he is not present at a communication of the lodge, either stated or emergent, or when he is absent from the jurisdiction, or is mentally or physically unable to do official acts when necessity therefor arises. [59-10.4].
  5. The member qualified and acting as master shall have the same powers and he is held to the same accountability as the lawful master of the lodge during the time he shall be lawfully acting as such, and no longer.
  6. A warden shall not call an emergent communication of his lodge while his superior officer is within territorial jurisdiction thereof and is able to authorize the call, but a warden acting in the absence of the master has the same power and authority as the master. [45-3; 45-5].
  7. When acting as master, he shall sign official documents senior warden, but adding thereto acting master. [45-12; 57-8].

The Master's Charge

Greetings Worshipful Master,

Congratulations upon being elected as master of your lodge.

Through dedication, hard work, careful planning, sacrifice and determination, you have achieved the goal you set many years ago when you accepted an appointment to the line of officers. You have achieved a goal that few masons attain.

Your journey has been long and tedious. You have gained much knowledge and experience over the years. Now is the time to make use of that knowledge and experience governing your lodge over the next year.

Govern your lodge wisely. Run your lodge as you see fit. The brethren have placed their trust in you to lead them for the next year.

Be firm, yet flexible. Be proud, yet humble. Treat your brethren with the same respect they demonstrated when they elected you as master.

Worshipful Brother, you have been elected to one of the most important and honorable positions you could ever hold. Remember well the lessons of the degrees and what they teach. Never lose sight of “The Three Great Lights” and to what they allude. Wear your apron proudly and never forget its meaning, mostly, remember the only creed a mason is required to profess, “Trust in God.”

Serve well in the East!

Before being installed as master, you and all of the elected and appointed officers made the following pledge:

I promise on the honor of a master mason that I will, to the best of my ability, conform to and abide by the ancient landmarks, regulations, and usages of Masonry, the Constitution and laws of the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina and the laws of this lodge, and that I will faithfully perform the duties of the office to which I have been selected.

Upon being installed into the office you now occupy, the Installing Officer read the following charge to you:

- I. You agree to be a good man and true, and strictly to obey the moral law.*
  - II. You agree to be a peaceable subject, and cheerfully to conform to the laws of the country in which you reside.*
  - III. You promise not to be concerned in plots and conspiracies against government, but patiently to submit to the decisions of the supreme legislature.*
  - IV. You agree to pay a proper respect to the civil magistrates, to work diligently, live creditably, and act honorably by all men.*
  - V. You agree to hold in veneration the original rules and patrons of the order of Masonry, and their regular successors, supreme and subordinate, according to their station, and to submit to the awards and resolutions of your brethren, when convened, in every case consistent with the constitutions of the order.*
  - VI. You agree to avoid private piques and quarrels, and to guard against intemperance and excess.*

- VII. You agree to be cautious in carriage and behavior, courteous to your brethren, and faithful to your Lodge.
- VIII. You promise to respect genuine brethren, and to discountenance imposters and all dissenters from the original plan of Masonry.
- IX. You agree to promote the general good of society, to cultivate the social virtues, and to propagate the knowledge of the art.
- X. You promise to pay homage to the grand master and to his officers when duly installed, and strictly to conform to every edict of the Grand Lodge, or general assembly of masons, that is not subversive of the principles and groundwork of Masonry.
- XI. You admit that it is not in the power of any men, or body of men, to make innovations in the body of Masonry.
- XII. You promise a regular attendance at the committees and communications of the Grand Lodge, on receiving proper notice, and to pay attention to all the duties of Masonry, on convenient occasions.
- XIII. You admit that no new lodge shall be formed without permission of the Grand Lodge, and that no countenance be given to an irregular lodge, or to any person clandestinely initiated therein, being contrary to the ancient charges of the order.
- XIV. You admit that no person can be regularly made a mason or be admitted as a member of any regular Lodge without previous notice and due inquiry into his character.
- XV. You agree that no visitor shall be received into your lodge without due examination and without producing proper vouchers of his having been initiated into a regular lodge.

These are the regulations of Free and Accepted Masons.

My Brother, do you submit to these charges and promise to support these regulations, as masters have done in all ages before you?

After your affirmative answer was given the installing officer continued:

Brother, in consequence of your cheerful conformity to the charges and regulations of the fraternity, you are now to be installed master of this lodge, in full confidence of your care, skill, and capacity to govern the same.

After being invested with the apron and jewel of your office, the installing officer continued:

Worshipful Master, you will now receive the furniture and various implements used in your lodge. They are emblematic of our conduct in life, and on this occasion are carefully enumerated.

The Holy Writings, that Great Light in Masonry, will guide you to all truth; it will direct your path to the temple of happiness, and point out to you the whole duty of man. However men may differ in creed, yet all men agree that within the pages of the Holy Bible are found those principles which lay the foundation upon which to build a righteous life. Freemasonry would take all men by the hand and, leading them to its altar, would point to the open Bible and urge each faithfully to direct his steps through life by the light he shall find therein. If, from our sacred altar, the atheist or irreligious man should ever wrest this book and thus remove, or even obscure, the Great Light of Freemasonry, that light which has been for centuries the rule and guide of all masons, then we could no longer claim the proud title and rank of master mason. As long as that sacred light shines upon our altar, as long as it illumines and brightens the pathway of the craftsman by the golden rays of truth; so long will Freemasonry live and shed its beneficent influence among men. Guard, then, my brother, this sacred book as you guard your life. Defend it as you would defend the flag of your country. Live according to its sublime precepts; govern yourself that you may be able to govern others; learn first that you may be able to teach; for justice, moderation, and decorum should mark the acts of an upright man.

The square teaches us to regulate our actions by rule and line, and harmonize our conduct by the principle of morality and virtue.

The compasses teach us to limit our desires in every station; that, rising to eminence by merit, we may live respected and die regretted.

The rule directs that we should punctually observe our duty, press forward in the path of virtue, and, neither inclining to the right nor to the left, in all our actions have eternity in view.

The line teaches the criterion of moral rectitude, to avoid dissimulation in conversation and action, and to direct our steps to the path which leads to a glorious immortality.

You were then conducted to the East where you were handed your master's cover and told:

It is fitting that you should be covered when presiding over the lodge.

Worshipful Master, I now place in your hands the gavel, an additional insignia of your rank and authority. Wield it, my brother, with prudence and discretion – firmly, but never arbitrarily – to the end that good order and harmony may be preserved.

You were then presented the charter and told:

Worshipful Master, I now present to you the charter of (insert your lodge name here), and charge you that you must preserve it with unflinching care and deliver it to your successor in office.

The installing officer then read:

The Book Of Constitutions and the By-Laws of your lodge you are to search at all times. Cause them to be read in your lodge that none may pretend ignorance of their excellent precepts.

The installing officer then presented the charge to you:

Worshipful Master, being selected master of this lodge, you cannot be insensible of the obligations which devolve on you as their head, nor of your responsibility for the faithful discharge of the important duties annexed to your election.

The honor, reputation, and usefulness of your lodge will materially depend on the skill and devotion with which you manage its concerns, while the happiness of its members will be generally promoted in proportion to the zeal and ability with which you propagate the genuine principles of our institution.

For a pattern of imitation, consider the great luminary of nature, which, rising in the east, regularly diffuses the light and lustre to all within its circle. In like manner, it is your province to spread and communicate light and instruction to the brethren of your lodge. Forcibly impress upon them the dignity and high importance of Masonry. Seriously admonish them never to disgrace it. Charge them to practice out of this lodge those duties which are taught in it. By amiable, discreet, and virtuous conduct, they will convince mankind of the goodness of the institution, so that, when anyone is said to be a member of it, the world may know that he is one to whom the burdened heart may pour out its sorrows, to whom distress may prefer its suit, whose hand is guided by justice, and whose heart expanded by benevolence. In short, by a diligent observance of the by-laws of your lodge, the constitutions of Masonry, and above all, the Holy Scriptures, which are given as a rule and guide to your faith, you will be enabled to acquit yourself with honor and reputation, and lay up a crown of rejoicing, which shall continue when time shall be no more.

Duties of the Master

As described by

The Code, Constitution and Regulations of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina

Reg. 59-2 Master. Some, but not all of the powers of the master of a lodge which are also duties to be performed by him, or at his direction and under his supervision, are as follows:

1. He may discharge all of the executive functions of his lodge, always subject to the law of the Grand Lodge.
  2. He may expound the law and decide all questions of Masonic law and order, subject to review by the grand master and the Grand Lodge. [8-1, 8-2].
  3. He may issue or cause to be issued all summonses or notices which may be required when the welfare of Masonry, the interest of the lodge, or the rights of a brother demand.
  4. He shall take special care that disobedience of a duly served summons be promptly followed by discipline unless the offender renders excuse for the offense satisfactory to the lodge. [45-5; 83-2].
  5. He may convene his lodge in emergent communication whenever he deems it necessary. [45-3; 45-5].
  6. He may close his lodge at his pleasure, but it shall be closed as provided in Regulation 45-17 .
  7. He may decide who shall be admitted to the lodge and he may deny admission to a visitor. [50-5; 50-5.7].
  8. He shall see that worthy brethren visiting from other lodges have courteous attention and a welcome to his Lodge.
  9. He may deny admission to a brother who is disqualified by law to sit in a lodge or who is under the influence of intoxicants. [74-5; 90-4].

10. He may refuse to entertain a motion. [45-23.20].
  11. He may declare the business of a lodge and may prohibit or allow debate. [45-23.20].
  12. Except as otherwise provided in Regulation 73-3, he may delay until the next stated communication only, a ballot on a petition for the degrees or an application for affiliation, advancement, or restoration.
  13. He may order a ballot spread outside the regular order of business at a stated communication. [68-2; 68-14; 73-3; 73-6; 75-8].
  14. He may order a vote taken by the customary method, if a ballot is not required by law, unless two members concur in a demand that it be taken by ballot. [63-3].
  15. He may confer a degree or postpone conferring a degree against the wishes of a majority of the members except upon objection to initiation or advancement as provided by law. [73-3].
  16. After having opened his lodge, he may place any capable master mason in the East and permit him to confer any of the degrees, the master being present. If any regular officer is absent, his office should be filled pro tempore. [24-1.1; 45-12.2; 71-15].
  17. He may complete unfinished material or business, except as may be otherwise provided by law. [73-3; 73-4].
  18. He may set aside an election of officers for a violation of the law against electioneering for office. [86-2.14; 86-2.15].
  19. He may appoint all appointive officers not otherwise provided for and fill vacancies in such offices. [54-2].
  20. He may discharge any or all members of a committee appointed who fail to, or refuse to, act, and fill any vacancy thus created. [67-9].
  21. He may perform such other acts, by ancient usage proper to his office, as shall not be in contravention of any provision of The Code or any law of the Grand Lodge.
  22. He shall preserve the charter of the lodge with unfailing care and to deliver it to his successor in office. [38-3.1; 40-6; 59-6; 41-8; 38-3.4].
  23. He may appoint all committees except as otherwise provided. [Chapter 61].
  24. He shall open and preside over the lodge when present, and to make all necessary provisions for the faithful performance of the duty when absent, except that he shall surrender the chair to the grand master or his representative or the district deputy grand master, on their official visitations. [45-12; 45-12.1].
  25. He may cast the deciding vote in the event of a tie if he has not already voted. [44-7 (Art. 22B); 63-16].
  26. He shall give Masonic instruction at every communication of his lodge.
  27. He shall guard carefully against any infraction of the by-laws of his lodge, the laws of the Grand Lodge, or the general regulations, usages, and customs of Masonry, and suffer no departure therefrom upon the plea of convenience or expediency except in cases of emergency, and then only when authorized by a dispensation of the grand master. [76-3.4.A].

28. He shall require every member of the lodge present except the tyler, to vote upon all questions of a business nature coming before the lodge unless excused at his own request by the master. The tyler, if a member of the lodge, shall vote in all secret ballots by balls and cubes, and he shall not be excused therefrom. [63-4; 63-11; Chapter 63].
  29. He shall permit no appeal from his decision to be made to the lodge. [59-4; 59-5; 59-5.4; 45-23.20; 8-3; 8-3.4].
  30. He shall make the work and ritual practiced in his lodge conform to the authorized work adopted by the Grand Lodge and to no other system, and to preserve carefully the Official Standard of the Work received for by him. [24-5; 24-5.3; Chapter 24].
  31. He shall have a copy of The Code always available in the lodge room when the lodge is open.
  32. He shall require the members of his lodge to obey a mandate of the grand master. Refusal of its members to submit to such decisions, until reversed by the Grand Lodge, is revolutionary and shall subject the offenders to discipline for un-Masonic conduct.
  33. He shall read and expound to the lodge the proceedings of the Grand Lodge.
  34. He shall sign all orders drawn upon the treasurer after approval by the lodge. [59-11.3].
  35. He shall take command of the other officers and to claim of them at any time advice and assistance on any business relative to the craft.
  36. He shall see that the proper officers collect and truly keep the moneys of the lodge, see that the furniture and other valuables are properly cared for, and should the charter be forfeited or surrendered, to preserve these things subject to the order of the Grand Lodge. [41-9; 41-1.2].
  37. He shall see that the law for collection of dues is fully observed. [77-24].
  38. He shall see that the secretary promptly pays the lodge funds to the treasurer. The master is justified in removing a secretary who fails or refuses to do so. [59-12.4].
  39. He shall see that the annual returns to the Grand Lodge are made out properly and forwarded by the secretary by the time required by the Grand Lodge, and that the amount due to the Grand Lodge is paid promptly. [Chapter 47].
  40. He shall convene his lodge in stated communication at the time prescribed in its by-laws. [44-7 (Art. 8)].
  41. He shall convene his lodge upon the official visitation of the grand master or his representative, extend to him the appropriate courtesies and, when called upon, submit for his inspection the by-laws and records of the lodge. [13- 3.3].
  42. He shall see that all un-Masonic conduct that comes to his knowledge is dealt with according to the laws of the Grand Lodge. [41-10.4].
  43. He shall preside at the Masonic burial services of deceased master masons. [82-1; 82-2].
  44. He shall represent his lodge in conjunction with the wardens at all communications of the Grand Lodge, or appoint his proxy therefor. [3-1.3; 3- 3; 3-4; Official Form 43].
  45. He shall inspect the ballot box, after requiring it to be inspected by the wardens, declare the result, and immediately thereafter destroy the ballot.

46. He shall install his successor in office or cause it to be done. [55-7]
47. He shall declare a petition for the degrees received by the lodge after it has been read in open lodge, provided, the lodge has jurisdiction over it, and he, or the lodge, has not refused to entertain it. [65-6].
48. He shall order a petition or application withdrawn and returned if he discovers after it has been received, that the lodge does not have jurisdiction or that the petitioner or applicant is not mentally or physically qualified. If he is morally disqualified, the petition or application shall not be withdrawn but shall go to the ballot. [65-6; 65-7; 66-2; 67-4; 67-6; 75-8; 78-2].
49. He shall see that the place of the junior deacon is always filled although this officer himself may be in the lodge hall but elsewhere temporarily performing his duties. [59-14.2].
50. He shall see that the East is always filled when the lodge is open. [45-12; 57- 8].

A Past Master Speaks

By Carl H. Claudy

We are a jealous lot, we past masters!

But our jealousy is not of the master but for the lodge we have loved and served. We want to see her succeed, go forward, grow bigger, better, finer, more useful to our brethren. Most of us count no personal sacrifice comparable to the good of the lodge; most of us will go to great lengths to serve again in any capacity, if by so doing we can help the old lodge another mile forward on what we hope will be always an honorable path to glory.

Therefore, worshipful sir, use us, we who have had our little hour in the East. We have experience – make it count for you. We have learned to work – make us work for you. We have understanding of lodge and membership problems – make it yours. Give us a job to do, a committee membership, a minor appointment; aye, give us the hard and unwanted jobs, and most of us will jump at the chance. And if you are reasonably gentle about it, and treat us with even a modicum of fraternal courtesy – such as the young should always offer the old! – some day we will welcome you as immediate past master and make you one of the charmed circle without which no lodge can function at its best.

The Questions

Preliminaries To The Admission Of Candidates

Reg. 79-04: Before the candidate may enter the lodge for initiation, he shall plainly and unequivocally give his oral assent to these three questions:

1. “Do you seriously declare, upon your honor, that unbiased by friends and uninfluenced by mercenary motives, you freely and voluntarily offer yourself a candidate for the mysteries of Masonry?”
2. “Do you seriously declare, upon your honor, that you are prompted to solicit the privileges of Masonry by a favorable opinion conceived of the institution, a desire for knowledge, and a sincere wish to be serviceable to your fellow creatures?”
3. “Do you seriously declare, upon your honor, that you will cheerfully conform to all the ancient established usages and customs of the fraternity?”
4. And he shall answer the following question: “Have you ever petitioned any other lodge and been rejected by it?”

Admission Of The Candidate

Psalm 133

1. Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!
2. It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down the beard, even Aaron’s beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments;
3. As the dew of Hermon and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the Lord commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.

The Apron Lecture

I now present you the lambskin or white leather apron, which is an emblem of innocence, and the badge of a mason, more ancient than the Golden Fleece or Roman Eagle; more honorable than the Star and Garter, or any other order that can be conferred upon you at this time, or any future period, by king, prince, potentate, or any other person, except he be a mason, and which I hope you will wear with equal pleasure to yourself, and honor to the fraternity.

It may be that, in coming years, upon your head shall rest the laurel leaves of victory; on your breast may hang jewels fit to grace the diadem of an Eastern potentate; nay, more than these, with light added to the coming light, your ambitious feet may tread round after round the ladder that leads to fame in our mystic circle, and even the purple of our fraternity may rest upon your honored shoulders; but never again from mortal hands, never again, until your enfranchised spirit shall have passed upward and inward through the pearly gates, shall any honor so distinguished, so emblematic of purity and all perfections, be bestowed upon you as this which I now confer. It is yours to wear throughout an honorable life, and at your death to be placed upon the coffin which shall contain your earthly remains, and with them laid beneath the silent clods of the valley.

Let its pure and spotless surface be to you an ever-present reminder of a “purity of life and rectitude of conduct,” a never-ending argument for nobler deeds, for higher thoughts, for greater achievements. And when at last your weary feet shall have come to the end of their toilsome journey, and from your nerveless grasp shall drop forever the working tools of life, may the record of your life and actions be as pure and spotless as the fair emblem which I place within your hands tonight. And when your trembling soul shall stand naked and alone before the Great White Throne, may it be your portion to hear from Him who sitteth as the Judge Supreme the welcome words- “Well done, good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.”

The Working Tools

Entered Apprentice

The working tools of an Entered Apprentice are the twenty-four-inch gauge and the common gavel.

The twenty-four-inch Gauge is an instrument made use of by operative masons to measure and lay out their work, but we, as Free and Accepted Masons, are taught to make use of it for the more noble and glorious purpose of dividing our time. It being divided into twenty-four equal parts, is emblematic of the twenty-four hours of the day, which we are taught to divide into three equal parts; whereby are found eight hours for the service of God, and a distressed worthy brother; eight for our usual avocations; and eight for refreshment and sleep.

The common gavel is an instrument made use of by operative masons to break off the corners of rough stones, the better to fit them for the builder’s use; but we, as Free and Accepted Masons, are taught to make use of it for the more noble and glorious purpose of divesting our hearts and consciences of all the vices and superfluities of life, thereby fitting our minds as living stones for that spiritual building, “that house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.”

7. Thus he shewed me: and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plumb-line, with a plumb-line in his hand.
8. And the Lord said unto me, "Amos, what seest thou?" And I said, "a plumb-line." Then said the Lord, "Behold, I will set a plumb-line in the midst of my people Israel: I will not again pass by them any more."

The Working Tools Fellow Craft

The working tools of and Fellow Craft are the plumb, the square, and the level. The plumb is an instrument made use of by operative masons to raise perpendiculars, the square to square their work, and the level to lay horizontals; but we as Free and Accepted Masons are taught to make use of them for more noble and glorious purposes; the plumb admonishes us to walk uprightly in our several stations before God and man, squaring our actions by the square of virtue, and remembering that we are traveling upon the level of time to that undiscovered country, from whose bourne no traveler returns.

Props Placement for Master Mason Degree

Master Mason Degree Scripture

Ecclesiastes 12: 1-7

- 1 Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them;
- 2 While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain:
- 3 In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened,
- 4 And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low;
- 5 Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets.
- 6 Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern.

7 Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

Taken from the Bahnson Manual

The Working Tools

Master Mason

The working tools of and master mason are all the implements of Masonry indiscriminately, but more especially the trowel.

The trowel is an instrument made use of by operative masons to spread the cement which unites a building into one common bond; but we, as Free and Accepted Masons are taught to make use of it for the more noble and glorious purpose of spreading the cement of brotherly love and affection; that cement which unites us into one sacred band, or society of friends and brothers, among whom no contention should ever exist, but that noble contention, or rather emulation, of who can best work and best agree.
